

Company Profile

Short version (300 characters)

The European software provider SAPERION offers a high-performance software platform for Enterprise Content Management. The SAPERION products empower corporations by addressing the needs for efficient management of all company information while creating competencies across the operation by streamlining and automating business processes.

Standard version (550 characters)

The European software provider SAPERION offers midsize and global organizations a high-performance software platform for Enterprise Content Management.

The SAPERION products empower corporations by addressing the needs for efficient management of all company information while creating competencies across the operation by streamlining and automating business processes.

SAPERION's vision is to bring together companies, people and processes so that they can respond quickly and make informed decisions in today's dynamic markets.

Long version (900 characters)

The European software provider SAPERION offers midsize and global organizations a high-performance software platform for Enterprise Content Management. SAPERION AG has worked together with global players for many years and has preserved its straightforwardness, flexibility and responsiveness.

The SAPERION products empower corporations by addressing the needs for efficient management of all company information while creating competencies across the operation by streamlining and automating business processes.

SAPERION's vision is to bring together companies, people and processes so that they can respond quickly and make informed decisions in today's dynamic markets. More than 1,500 companies from various industries world-wide enhance their product quality and increase customer satisfaction with SAPERION, while reducing costs and thus gaining a vital competitive edge.