

SAPERION Standard Text

Short version (300 characters)

SAPERION is a software platform for entering, processing, distributing and revision-safe archiving of data, documents and information. The system answers the core challenges of many companies: optimization of processes, creation of legal certainty and the inclusion of information.

Standard version (550 characters)

SAPERION is a high-performance software platform for entering, processing, distributing and revision-safe archiving of data, documents and information. The system answers the core challenges of many companies: optimization of processes, creation of legal certainty and the inclusion of information. SAPERION software supports industry standards, ensuring the protection of existing investments in IT infrastructure and know-how.

Long version (900 characters)

SAPERION is a high-performance software platform for entering, processing, distributing and revision-safe archiving of data, documents and information. The system answers the core challenges of many companies: LEGAL COMPLIANCE. The observance of legal constraints as well as the easy adaptation to changing statutory requirements and other general conditions are made possible. INTEGRATION. Industry standards are supported. This protects existing ensures investments, wide know-how availability and a very high compatibility. TRANSACTION PROCESSES. SAPERION integrates easily into the information infrastructure within the organisation and provides structured, efficient and monitored support for processes. World-wide, more than 1,500 companies from all sectors enhance their product quality and customer satisfaction with SAPERION, as well as reducing costs and thus gaining a decisive competitive edge.